Executive Master in Finance, Banking and Real Estate

2019

General Information

The Program is a 12 month course. It runs from January 2019 to December 2019. The AUBG EMBA Admissions Office must receive the application form and all required documents by December 20, 2018. It is acceptable for candidates to start sending the application form to the Admissions Office and then send additional required documents (TOEFL, etc.) at a later date.

The Selection Phases

When AUBG receives an application for admission, it carries out a pre-selection process based on the initial documents sent. The Admissions Committee then lets the candidate know if he/she is considered suitable to proceed to the selection process. The final assessment of each application will take place once the candidate has completed all required tests and submitted all required documents. Candidates admitted into the program must confirm their participation based on deadlines set by the Admissions Office.

Admissions Requirements

To be considered for admission, candidates must fulfil the following minimum requirements:

- Degree certificate in any discipline
- Minimum of 3 years managerial experience
- Proficiency in English
- Strong motivation
- IT competency and laptop with Internet connection
- Good leadership skills and interpersonal skills

Application Form

The application form must be completed with accurate and precise information regarding your personal and professional experiences, your reasons for desiring to attend the Program. The application form must be completed with the following documents:

Degree Certificate

An official degree certificate from the College or University attended, along with a transcript of grades for individual courses/modules. The type of degree, date of graduation, dates of enrolment, grades received and the grading scale must be clearly stated in this documentation.

Detailed Curriculum Vitae

Proficiency in English

All applicants must have good written and spoken English and must demonstrate their level of knowledge by taking either the TOEFL or IELTS or PTE Academic or CPE test. A test result may be waived for mother-tongue English speakers and for students who took their degree in English or can document significant professional experience in an English-speaking country.

Candidates for the 2019 edition of the Program must take the test by December 2018. At the test site, you will need to specify that you want your results sent directly to AUBG (for TOEFL) by indicating our School Code 2451, Results obtained before 2014 are no longer valid. AUBG offers Institutional TOEFL for applicants who have not taken the test. For further information, go to TOEFL website: www.TOEFL.org

IELTS website: www.IELTS.org

PTE website: www.pearsonpte.com/PTEAcademic

CPE website: www.cambridgeesol.org/exams/cpe

English Language Proficiency Tests Waivers: The AUBG EMBA Admissions Committee may waive the requirement for English language proficiency tests for:

- Native speakers of English language;
- Non-native speakers of English language who have completed a full-time Bachelor's degree program in an accredited university with instruction in English within 5 years of the date of application to the AUBG EMBA program.

Interview

Candidates will be required to have an interview with a member of the AUBG EMBA Program Admissions Committee. In special cases the interview may take place remotely (by Skype).

Application for Sponsor Companies

This is to be completed by a company representative (using the "Application for the sponsor company form") only if the company intends to back the participation in the Program of a candidate through partial or total payment of the tuition fee.

The application for admission must be accompanied by:

- € 60 non-refundable application fee

The Selection Result

Once the selection process is complete, the Admissions Office will inform the candidates of the result of their application in writing. In no case will the result be communicated by telephone. The selection process will yield one of the following three results:

Admission

If accepted, the candidate will receive an official letter of admission to the Program. If all the available places have been filled, the School may decide to place the candidate on a waiting list, or offer admission for the next edition.

Deferment

Admission to the Program is valid only for the year in which the application is submitted. Deferment may be requested for the year following the application, but confirmation of admission is at the discretion of the Admissions Committee.

Non-Admission

Admission to the Program is highly selective. The selection process assesses the profile of the individual candidate, but also takes into account the composition of the Executive Master of Finance, Banking and Real Estate, which must be consistent with the quality and diversity promoted by the American University in Bulgaria and SDA Bocconi. While fully aware of the commitment that all candidates make in the admissions process, AUBG and SDA Bocconi do not provide individual answers to non-admitted candidates.

Your Commitment to the Executive Master of Finance, Banking and Real Estate: Executive Master of Finance, Banking and Real Estate allows you to work and study at the same time.
